

Appendix S1. Patient satisfaction scale. (The complete questionnaire in Danish is available from the authors on request).

Question		Points
		1	2	3	4	5
1.	What would be your greatest concern if you only had teledermoscopic pictures taken at your general practitioner?	Not having a face-to-face consultation with the dermatologist.	-	-	-	I have no concern.
		That the dermatologists diagnosis based on the teledermoscopic photos is another than if the dermatologist saw me face-to-face.
		That it took longer to get an answer to whether I should be nervous about my skin change.
		That pictures of me could become available to unauthorized people.
		Other
2.	Would you want teledermoscopy available as an alternative to an in-person visit?	No	-	-	-	Yes
3.	Which diagnostic method would you prefer if teledermoscopy and face-to-face consultation by the dermatologist are equivalent in ensuring a correct diagnosis?	Face-to-face consultation at the dermatologist	-	-	-	Teledermoscopy at my general practitioner.
4.	I was given respect and courtesy by all office personnel at my general practitioner, including the person who took the pictures.	Strongly disagree	Disagree	Neither	Agree	Strongly agree
5.	I was comfortable with the new diagnostic method with teledermoscopic photos at my general practitioner.	Strongly disagree	Disagree	Neither	Agree	Strongly agree
6.	I will use teledermoscopy if I get a quicker answer to whether my skin change is harmless or not.	Strongly disagree	Disagree	Neither	Agree	Strongly agree
7.	I will use teledermoscopy if it saves me time.	Strongly disagree	Disagree	Neither	Agree	Strongly agree
8.	I think too much time was spent in taking the teledermoscopic photos at my general practitioner.	Strongly agree	Agree	Neither	Disagree	Strongly disagree
9.	I would prefer to discuss my skin change with the hospital dermatologist in person.	Strongly agree	Agree	Neither	Disagree	Strongly disagree
10.	I would feel that something important was missing if I did not see the dermatologist in person.	Strongly agree	Agree	Neither	Disagree	Strongly disagree

The total amount of points was divided with 10 (number of questions) and grouped into following categories: very unsatisfied [0;0.8], unsatisfied]0.8;2.6], neither]2.6;3.4], satisfied]3.4;4.2] and very satisfied [4.2;5].