

Fig. S1. The proportion with disturbed night sleep and reported use of topical corticosteroids (TCS) for more than 6 months among subjects with atopic dermatitis at the age of 12 ($n=405$), 16 ($n=297$) and 24 years ($n=542$). ^aDisturbed night sleep sometimes, often, or always at 12 and 24 years of age and once a week or more at 16 years of age.