

Table SII. Regional register data on healthcare consultations between 14 and 22 years of age, among young adults with atopic dermatitis (AD), living in Stockholm at both 16 and 24 years of age

	Proportion with ≥1 healthcare consultation		Proportion with ≥1 healthcare consultation
	AD at 24 years ^a (n = 343) n (%)	Number of visits Mean (max)	Persistent AD ^b (n = 160) n (%)	Number of visits Mean (max)
AD at any time ^c	64 (18.7)	0.57 (24)	47 (29.4)	0.96 (24)
AD and unspecified dermatitis at any time ^d	81 (23.6)	0.69 (24)	55 (34.4)	1.09 (24)

^aAD at 24 years defined as: itchy rash and dry skin in the preceding 12 months, history of flexural atopic dermatitis, asthma and/or rhinitis, onset before 2 years of age. ^bAD at 12 and/or 16 and 24 years of age, defined as: dry skin in combination of itchy rash on typical localization. ^cAD at any time diagnosed with International Classification of Diseases 10th Revision (ICD-10) code L.20. ^dAD and unspecified dermatitis at any time diagnosed with ICD-code L.20-L.30.