

Fig. S3. Kaplan–Meier plots for patients with a dispensed prescription of methotrexate (MTX) in 2005, depicting the proportion of patients not having cutaneous malignant melanoma vs. time from medicine start, comparing the MTX-exposed patients and their corresponding MTX-unexposed individuals stratifying with respect to the MTX-exposed patients' total accumulated dose.