

Figure S1. Flowchart of cohort selection for primary BCC tumours treated with C±E. Tumours recurring within the first year after treatment were considered treatment failures rather than recurrences. Therefore, follow-up was defined as starting one year after C±E treatment and continuing until detection of a recurrent tumour or the last recorded follow-up visit for the specific tumour course.

