

Fig. S1. Serum β -D-glucan level during the clinical course. In both case 1 (a) and case 2 (b), the serum β -D-glucan levels (blue line) were elevated before treatment, and declined gradually after treatment in parallel with the clinical manifestations (schematic diagram).