

Fig. S1. Clinical features of the primary cutaneous lesion and computed tomography scans of the lung. (a) An irregular-shaped, slightly elevated pigmented macule on his right preauricular area. (b) Various sized metastatic lesions on the left lung. (c) Infiltration and consolidation mainly located around the metastatic lesions.