

Fig. S1. Histological specimens of a lesional skin biopsy. (a) Haematoxylin and eosin (H&E) staining showing an intra-epidermal blister (original magnification $\times 50$). (b) Numerous eosinophils (arrow) in the epidermal blister roof (original magnification $\times 200$). (c) Mixed inflammatory cell infiltrate with numerous eosinophils (arrow) in the dermis (original magnification $\times 200$).