

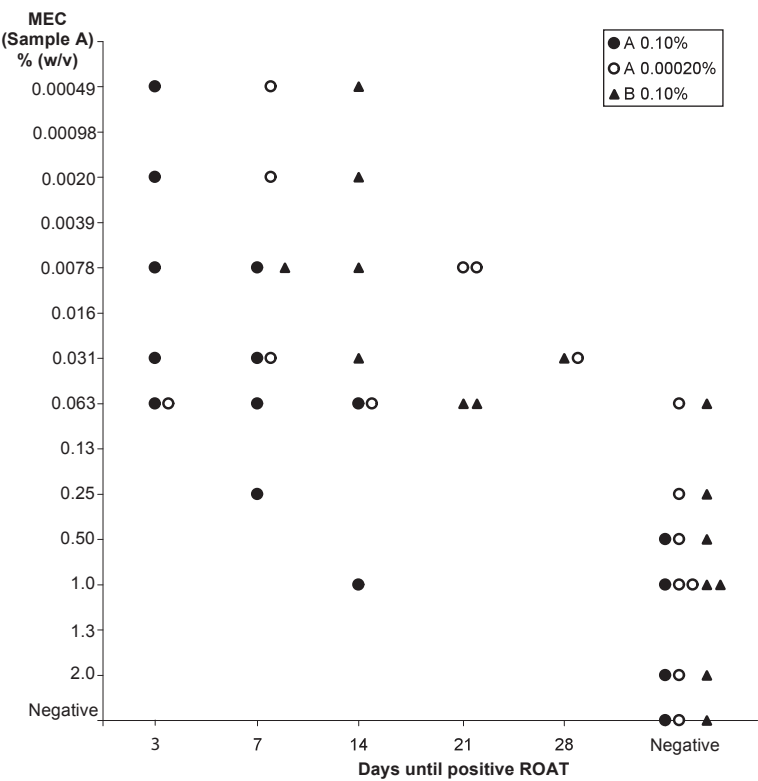

Fig. S1. Relationship between the reactivity to the patch tests of sample A (untreated oak moss absolute) expressed as the minimum eliciting concentration (MEC) of sample A and the number of days until observation of a positive repeated open application test (ROAT).