

Supplementary material has been published as submitted. It has not been copyedited, typeset or checked for scientific content by Acta Dermato-Venereologica

Fig. S1. Schematic of injection locations. The location of the Botox® or saline placebo injection sites was randomized, and the subjects were blinded to the identity of the injections. Since Botox® was reported to diffuse within a 1-2 cm radius, a total of 10 units equally distributed among 5 injection sites (2 units per injection), within the 4x4cm test area, were intradermally injected to ensure complete coverage of the test area.

