

Fig. S1. Clinical photographs of three different superficial basal cell carcinomas (I, II and III) with visual tumour borders marked (row 1). Fluorescence images at baseline with tumour margins marked on the photographs (row 2). Clinical photographs obtained before the second photodynamic therapy (PDT) session (row 3). Fluorescence images with tumour margins marked before the second PDT session (row 4). Clinical photographs at follow-up (row 5).