

APPENDIX SII. Reasons for exclusion by title or abstract of references identified in search strategy

---

Study protocol

The study didn't explicitly indicate it included vehicle-related trauma

Study of work related injuries

Study of sport related injuries

Study of injuries resulting from violence

Study of falls prevention

Intervention was directed at the health provider and not the patient

Unit of analysis was the child

Unit of analysis was elderly

Study did not involve information or education

Not an intervention study

Information intervention could not be disaggregated from other aspects of clinical care

Information intervention given to all participants

Study design was not a randomized or pseudo-randomized trial

---